

BRVC/Event Host Partner Pledge

Music is a powerful tool that can inspire, entertain, and uplift. We, therefore, purpose to provoke each other to become better versions of ourselves and to improve our community by bringing family members, neighbors, friends, and friends-to-be to the following concert:

Date	Time	Location

Blue Ridge Vocal Connection members pledge to prepare for it by:

1. rehearsing regularly and diligently;
2. performing music that is uplifting, wholesome, and musically appealing;
3. welcoming audience members in a personable and friendly manner;
4. encouraging audience members to personally participate in the program;
5. sharing the benefits of a firsthand music experience;
6. sacrificially volunteering time to produce and perform without compensation.

On behalf of First Baptist Church, Radford, we pledge to prepare for it by:

1. internally advertising it to our members, associated constituents and stakeholders in our meetings and through our written communications, such as weekly bulletins, newsletters, website, etc.;
2. sending one or more promotional emails to our members, associated constituents and stakeholders the details at least 2-4 or more weeks prior to the event;
3. externally advertising it to our greater community as widely and thoroughly as our resources allow, including, but not limited to (check all that apply): ☐ newspaper, ☐ television, ☐ radio, ☐ Facebook, ☐ Google ads, and ☐ other online websites, such as _____;
4. partnering with the following organizations to inform their members and/or associated constituencies and stakeholders about this event: _____
5. supplementing the time and effort BRVC members sacrificially donate by enthusiastically encouraging our members, associated constituents and stakeholders to attend and generously facilitate this event;
6. affirming that BRVC events are high quality musical programs worthy of support performed live at limited times by pledging that our leadership team will attend the performance.
